

BOONE COUNTY WATER RESCUE MONTHLY REPORT

May 2009

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

1. 2 Team meetings, Port Security meeting, budget meeting, supervisor meeting, various internal special meetings.
2. Construction of new addition completed, less painting.
3. Boat 218 is back in service and on the water.
4. Boat patrol has started, the duty hours are Saturday and Sunday in service at 13:00hrs scheduled for an 8 hour shift (depends on boat traffic and weather). Patrol Area's Campbell & Kenton, and Boone County. Boat 219 will vary from county to county.
5. Drowning reconstruction training for SAR games in Greenville Ky.

Details

6. Public Safety Diving training pool session Scott H.S. and class room on going.
7. Boone County: 3 adults stranded at Big Bone creek, crew dispatched, towed boat back to Big Bone landing.
8. Kenton County: City of Ludlow, man attempting to swim across the river, he refused to get in the boat. The subject became very weak, diver Jason Gieman entered the water and brought him into boat 219 with the assistance of Matt Purcell before the subject drowned.
9. Campbell County: City of Newport, B&B barge sinks creating an oil spill requested for traffic control from I-471 to the Licking River. Boat 219 was stationed at the I-471 Bridge and the Coast Guard at the Licking River for approximately 8 hours. Boat 218 worked in Campbell and Kenton County and boat 217 worked in Boone County.
10. Vehicle recovery training: Divers and side scan crew removed a vehicle in 30' of water.
11. Boone County: Dispatched 23:00 hrs to Ohio River that 2 people adrift mid stream sleeping or passed out around the East Bend power plant. Crews checked the area from the power plant to Big Bone (boat or people was not found) detail ended at 06:00 hrs.
12. Campbell County: 1 adult and Jet Ski towed to safety, adrift, engine malfunction.
13. Bracken County: Fishing boat overturns at the dam; man swam to the ice breakers and was rescued by Clermont County. Crew was asked to stand down.
14. Campbell County: 2 request that vessel in distress. Crew was asked to stand down